In 2022, there progress will be very similar to 2021, but numerous changes compared to prior years in addition to the sale being online only. See the italic notes for additional specifics.

The sale book will now be listed by consignor instead of by age of the animals. Footnotes will be in a paragraph form. Please include any notes you would like for the sale book and online posting.

Please provide any additional information about the entry here including footnote text:

(If available) Dam Production Ratios(R): __ Birth Weight(W)R@ ____; __ Weaning WR@____; __ Yearling WR@____.

Is the entry halter broke: YES _____ or NO _____

(This is no longer a requirement, but if the entry is, it will have a special designation in the sale book.)

Is the entry ready to go to a show: YES _____ or NO _____

(This is not a requirement, but if the entry is, it will have a special designation in the sale book.)

For Heifers Only – Nominate your heifer for MO Jackpot Show: YES _____ or NO _____

(You must decide at this time if you would like your heifer nominated for the Jackpot program. If you select YES, this is an additional $15 fee for a total of $115 for the entry fee. If you select NO, then the heifer can still be added after the sale is complete for a $50 fee if desired.)

With the sale book being listed by consignor, we will have room to highlight each farm to try to share more about your operation with potential buyers. As a note, the sale book will be posted online but not printed. Without including your contact information from above, please include any additional information (in third person) that you would like listed with your cattle consignment:

Farm/Operation Information (maximum 50 words)*:
